Also, in response to a question raised during this morning's call about the EPA's consideration of the State of Florida's resources to implement a 404 program, please see the information in the attached Responsiveness Summary beginning on page 51. The Responsiveness Summary is included with over 100 other documents that are available through the Federal Register Notice published last week regarding the EPA's approval of the State of Florida's request for 404 Assumption (see

Good afternoon,

Thank you very much for your responses. We recognize that everyone's schedules are limited during the next 2 weeks, and our goal of proposing a meeting next week was to provide an opportunity for conversations for any parties that are available and wish to have a discussion prior to the week of Jan 4.   - o I will send a meeting invitation separately.
  - o We would like to hear your perspective on how to schedule/structure our discussions during the 30-day period, any information you need, recommendations on anything that is not in the PA that you want to be considered, and any other comments that you wish to offer.
- EPA will host a meeting on Dec 29, 10:00-11:00am EST primarily for those who cannot meet on Dec 21, but all are welcome to participate.
